

SOCRATIC SEMINAR QUESTIONS

1. How can you be a good influence on your friends by using empathy and compassion?
2. How can you use empathy and compassion with the bad influences in your life?
3. What kind of impact do your relationships have on your success in school?
4. What kind of impact do your relationships have on your success with family?
5. What kind of impact do your relationships have on your success in life?
6. What kinds of moral dilemmas do your friends have (do NOT use names)?
7. What kind of moral dilemmas do you have in choosing friends?
8. Can you help bad influences become good influences? How?
9. How can you use empathy and compassion to understand others better and lift them up?
10. How can receiving empathy and compassion, even from a stranger, change a person's life?
11. How can giving empathy and compassion help you take care of yourself at the same time?
12. If everyone you lifted up today could lift up five other people each day, what could the world look and act like by the end of the year?
13. What if everyone knew that people care about them a lot? How could it change the world we live in?
14. What if no one in the world knew that someone cares about them? What would the world be like?