DIRECTOR OF PROGRAM,

“ MY MENTORS
SUPPORTED ME,
TAUGHT ME
TO LOOK
INTROSPECTIVELY,
AND GAVE ME
THE HOPE AND INSPIRATION
I NEEDED TO PERSEVERE.”

I was raised by my grandmother who was a maid and a foster mother. She had anywhere from 15-18 people (mostly children and teens) in the home at one time. We were the epitome of what society called “at-risk”. All of us had parents who were so broken they were unable to care for us (from drugs/alcohol to other issues that kept them from being full-time parents).

My grandmother (single with only a 4th-grade education) had known poverty her entire life. She did not have the means to provide the children in her home with the motivation we needed to push past the situation we were born into.

That is where Colorado UpLift (Elevates founding model) came in. Their Teacher Mentors, like Mike Riley, put me in a position to learn, coach, and teach others the specific life skills that changed my life. Mike and other mentors supported me, taught me to look introspectively, and gave me the hope and inspiration I needed to persevere.

With more than 25-years of experience, committed to increasing the life experience and academic performance of all individuals, I have joined Elevate USA as the Director of National Programs. The Elevate model changed the trajectory of my life, and I am thrilled to play a role in impacting students nationwide.
